

SYMPHONY POPS MUSIC

Disney In Concert Magical Music From The Movies Tale as Old as Time

LISA LIVESAY is thrilled to be a part of Disney in Concert. Lisa recently lit up the stage in a headliner performance at the Kennedy Center Millennium Stage entitled Laughs, Love & Light. She has been seen in the role of Glinda in the national tour of Wicked. Other theatre credits include Monteen in Jason Robert Brown's Parade (LA Music Center), Olive in 25th...Spelling Bee, Peter Pan in Peter Pan, Cathy in The Last 5 Years, Belle in Disney's Beauty and the Beast. Lisa recently starred in the feature film Monday Nights at 7 with Edward James Olmos. Lisa has also performed with the San Francisco Symphony, Houston Symphony, Dallas Symphony, Oregon Symphony, among many others. You can spot Lisa with Bigfoot on a TOYOTA commercial, and occasionally, you'll hear her voice on select films and TV shows. She resides in New York City with husband composer and orchestrator Nolan Livesay. Lisa is a firm believer in hard work and kindness!

Please contact Ted Ricketts at (818) 521-6877 or ted@symphonypopsmusic.com for additional information.