Disney In Concert Magical Music From The Movies Tale as Old as Time

NATHAN ANDREW RILEY is a versatile singer and actor who is equally comfortable singing Opera and R&B, though he's admittedly found his home in the world of Musical Theatre. At age 16, Nathan was a Classical Voice Grand-Prizewinner in the nationally broadcast Los Angeles Music Center Spotlight Awards, hosted by Paula Abdul, where he performed at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, home of the Los Angeles Opera. From there, he continued to pursue his career as a singer. Nathan has performed extensively in theaters and cabarets in Southern California, as well as premiering works in New York City. You can also catch him at Disney's California Adventure in Aladdin: The Musical Spectacular. Favorite credits include: Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas! The Musical (Papa Who u/s) at The Old Globe Theatre; The Calico Buffalo (Bufo/Tulingluk) a new musical composed by the Grammy Award-winning Peter Stoopschinski, performed for The New York Musical Theatre Festival; Mixtape (Winston), Guys and Dolls (Scranton Slim) at Lambs Player's Theatre; Forever Plaid: Plaid Tidings (Smudge) for the New Village Arts Theatre; Man of La Mancha (Muleteer) with the Cygnet Theatre Company; Hairspray! (Seaweed J. Stubbs) at the Moonlight Amphitheatre. Nathan has his BA in Music from the University of Redlands.
